LIABILITY

The Conference organisers have taken all reasonable care in making arrangements for the 2017 Conference and related activities. In the event of unforeseen disruptions, CGCSA cannot be held responsible for any losses incurred by participants.

The programme is correct at the time of going to printing, however, organisers reserve the right to alter the programme if and when deemed necessary.

CGCSA shall in no event be held liable for any acts or omissions in the event of injury, damage, loss, accident, delay or irregularity of any kind whatsoever during arrangements organized through contractors or by the employees of such contractors. Accommodation and transportation services are subject to the terms and conditions under which they are offered to the participants. All accommodation, conference and other arrangements are subject to alteration and cancellation at any time without prior notice, due to factors that are outside of the organisers' reasonable control. This will be at the sole and absolute discretion of the organisers. Participants should make their own arrangements with respect to personal insurance including appropriate health insurance.

CGCSA reserves the right to make changes as and when deemed necessary, without prior notice to the parties concerned. All disputes are subject to resolution under South African Law.

Should such events, such as Force Majeure, render the organisers unable to deliver such service, the organisers shall not be held responsible. The organisers cannot be held responsible for any damages, and/or costs, whatsoever arising from any such alteration or cancellation.

By my signature hereto I agree to be bound by all the terms and conditions above

I AGREE TO THE ABOVE
